 Counsel for Plaintiff Kevin So

IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
 FOR THE CENTRAL DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

KEVIN SO,

Plaintiff,

v.

LAND BASE, LLC, et al.,

Defendants.

CASE NO. CV 08-3336 DDP (AGRx)

PLAINTIFF'S AMENDED
 RESPONSES TO DEFENDANT
 KB&M PROJECTS
 INTERNATIONAL, LLC'S FIRST SET OF REQUESTS FOR ADMISSIONS

1 COMES NOW, Plaintiff, Kevin So ("Plaintiff" or "So"), by the undersigned counsel, and
2 serves his objections and responses to the Requests for Admissions served by Defendant KB&M
3 Projects International, LLC ("Defendant" or "KB&M") pursuant to Rule 36 of the Federal Rules
4 of Civil Procedure and Local Civil Rule 36-2.

6 GENERAL OBJECTIONS

7 1. Each of the following general objections applies, as appropriate, to each specific
8 request without any restatement or express incorporation by reference within the specific
9 objections and responses.

11 2. To the extent that Plaintiff does not expressly admit or deny any of the following
12 Requests or any portions thereof, said Request or portion of said Request is Denied.

14 3. With respect to any Request to which Plaintiff has responded that it can neither
15 admit nor deny the Request, to the extent applicable to any such Request, Plaintiff has made
16 reasonable inquiry and the information which is known to it or is readily obtainable is 17 insufficient to assist Plaintiff in his attempt to specifically respond to any such Request.

19 4. With respect to each admitted document, if any, Plaintiff does not waive any right
20 he may have to cross-examine the author(s) of, or parties, to such documents. Plaintiff's
21 responses admitting to the genuineness of documents, if any, are nor intended to be, nor should
22 they be deemed to be, admissions of any specific facts, statements, opinions or matters set forth
23 or discussed in any document admitted to be genuine.
24

25 5. Plaintiff objects to the Defendant's Requests for Admissions to the extent they 26 impose restrictions and requirements not imposed or permitted by the Federal Rules of Civil 27 Procedure or the Local Civil Rules of the United States District Court for the Central District of 28 California.

1 6. Plaintiff objects to the Defendant's Requests for Admissions as a whole to the
2 extent they require production of any communication between Plaintiff and his counsel, any
3 work product created by counsel, any work product created by Plaintiff at the request of counsel,
4 or any work product created by Plaintiff in anticipation of litigation to the extent that such
5 communication and work product are protected from discovery by the attorney-client privilege,
6 the work product doctrine, or the common interest/joint defense privilege.

8 7. Plaintiff objects to the Defendant's Requests for Admissions as a whole to the
9 extent they fail to set reasonable time limits on the timeframe within which responses are sought.

11 8. Plaintiff reserves all objections to the competence, relevance, propriety or 12 admissibility at trial, or in connection with any motion, hearing, or other proceeding, of any
13 information or documents produced. The identification or production of any information or 14 document does not constitute an admission that such information or document is relevant to this 15 case.

17 9. Plaintiff's discovery, internal investigation, and preparation for trial are not 18 completed as of the date of this Response. Any responses below are based solely on such 19 information and documents as are presently known. Further discovery and investigation may 20 reveal information, facts or documents as are presently not known, or the significance of which
21 is not presently known upon which Plaintiff may rely at trial, or in connection with any motion,
22 hearing, or other proceeding. Therefore, Plaintiff's responses are without prejudice to the right
23 to identify and produce subsequently discovered documents or information and introduce same
24 later in this litigation, in connection with any motion, at trial, or otherwise.
26
27
28

1 10. Plaintiff objects Defendant's Requests for Admissions as a whole to the extent
2 they rely on allegations contained in the First Amended Complaint. The operative pleading
3 setting forth Plaintiff's claims is the Second Amended Complaint, which may have amended
4 various allegations contained in the First Amended Complaint

6 11. Plaintiff objects to the Requests to the extent they are unduly burdensome, overly
7 broad, and require Plaintiff to provide specific information that Defendant can acquire from the
8 documents produced in response to Defendant's Requests for Production of Documents.

10 12. Plaintiff objects to the Defendant's Requests to the extent they lack relevance, are 11 ambiguous, and are not reasonably calculated to lead to the discovery of admissible evidence.

13 13. Plaintiff objects to any characterizations, legal or factual, that multiple requests
14 attempt to place on the facts and the issues. Where possible, Plaintiff has attempted to place a 15 reasonable construction upon such requests.

16
17 14. Plaintiff objects to producing any confidential information without an appropriate
18 protective order.
